Thank you for your interest in Hawaii's future by visiting this web page. Most people will never read this because they do not have Internet access or are simply not interested in the 2006 Elections. I have heard all the excuses and all pale in comparison to what is at stake for Hawaii today and tomorrow. Our Nation is still at war in Iraq and Afghanistan, but voters can make a difference locally and globally.

There is much Americans take for granted. We take for granted that we can hold differing political opinions, criticize our leaders, and have protected liberties in our United States and Hawaii Constitutions. We can worship as we desire, fellowship with anyone we choose, speak our own mind, and write any line. We expect our roads to be safe, foods to be pure, medicines to cure, oceans to be clean, telephones to work, and our homes and papers to be secure. But, seldom do we acknowledge these basic "rights" because in America we are a Nation "of the people, for the people, and by the people". But, "we", as citizens must fulfill our responsibility and vote.

How ironic it is for America to spend over $300,000,000,000.00, sacrifice over 2,500 lives, and disable over 150,000 American lives in exporting democracy abroad when many of us don't even vote. My message to you is this - vote as if your quality of life depends upon it - because it does.
